The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 40 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over either Karvinen or Michalczyk et al. No distinction is seen between the metal oxide particles disclosed by Karvinen and Michalczyk et al, and that recited in claim 8.

Claim 40 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over either Horne et al or Murayama et al. No distinction is seen between the metal oxide particles disclosed by Horne et al and Murayama et al, and that recited in claim 8.

Claims 41-49 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Karvinen or Michalczyk et al or Horne et al or Murayama et al as applied to claim 40 above, and further in view of applicants' admitted prior art. It would be further obvious from applicants' admitted prior art (paragraphs [0002] through [0004] of the specification) to couple a biomolecule to the metal oxide particles of Karvinen or Michalczyk et al or Horne et al or Murayama et al and to employ the particles as the other recited conventional uses.

Claims 13-49 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 1, step c), it is indefinite as to what the mixture is added to. In claims 39 and 42-48, the recitation of "selected from...and" and "selected from...or" is improper Markush terminology.
